We still travel about over Ohio, having a parted look and a financial stringony which I hope will be relieved when Mr. Cleveland takes the chair. Good times will then be plentiful, and if not he need never come before the people again for anything. I know a drayman quite well here. I had a letter to him from a truckman in New York city. He says that his case is only one of many in Ohio. He had to mortgage his team under a Republican rule of four years, but after the 4th of March next, if he goes out to the barn and finds that mortgage still on his team, he is going to wobe hereafter with the third party.

A strange thing happened at Mackinsw not long ago. There is an eating house there, and one day a man who is said to les a good salesman, but a wholly self mude man, stopped there hoping to eat hill have time to spare. Dishes are passed about the table by young women dressed. in tight fitting ginghun dresses and a cold slaw chry anthemum in the bosom

One of them had a dish of delicious hash and noked the self made man if he would have some. His mouth had been a little congested by trying to swallow a quarter of a geo and a cup of quite understand his reply.
